

PAUL BELIVEAU

Born in Quebec City, Canada, in 1954, Paul Béliveau attained his Bachelor's degree in Visual Arts from Laval University in 1977. Recognized for his expertise in drawing, engraving and painting he has since then had more than a hundred solo exhibitions across Canada, the United States and Europe. The recipient of numerous prizes in visual arts and of multiple grants from the Canada Council has taken part in several committees and juries as specialist in the visual arts. His works can be found in many public and private collections throughout the country and has to his name some fifteen works of art integrated into architectural sites.

Learn more about the artist:
www.hohmann.art/beliveau

View available works
inventory.hohmann.art/beliveau